

THE NEWS.

Intelligence by Wire from All the World.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

Elections were held in ten States of the Union on Tuesday, Nov. 6. The results, as indicated in the reports telegraphed from the various State offices on the morning following the polling, are noted below:

Massachusetts.—The election in the Bay State was for Governor and other State officers and legislators. There were over 1,000,000 in the field for the several offices to choose from—Republican, Democratic, Greenback, Independent Greenback, and Prohibition—and the choice fell upon the Republican by a coast round majority. Gov. Butler's "no" down goes pretty solidly.

A very heavy vote was polled, as the result of the bitter battles of the Butler and anti-Butlerites. The majority for George D. Robinson, the Republican candidate for Governor, between 1860 and 1866, failed to gain his vote of last year less than a half of places in the State, while the Republicans gained heavily in all parts of the State. Butler ran about twice as many as the rest of the field, but lost the election by a decided majority. The Republicans polled less than 2,000 votes in the entire State. The Massachusetts Republicans are greatly elated at their victory.

New York.—New York elected a Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney General, Engineer and Surveyor, and both branches of the Legislature. The election was a close one, but the Republicans gained heavily in all parts of the State.

Gov. Butler ran about twice as many as the rest of the field, but lost the election by a decided majority. The Republicans polled less than 2,000 votes in the entire State. The Massachusetts Republicans are greatly elated at their victory.

Pennsylvania.—Pennsylvania voted for an Auditor General and Black Treasurers, and there were four tickets from which to choose. The Republicans ticket is elected by a small majority.

Interest bearing debt, $1,000,000,000, $1,000,000,000, $1,000,000,000, $1,000,000,000.

THE AVALANCHE.

W. F. MURR, Editor and Proprietor

Entered at the Post Office at Grayling, Mich., as second-class matter.

THURSDAY, Nov. 1, 1888.

LOCAL ITEMS.

READER, a cross marked after your name on this paper, signifies that the time for which you have paid has expired, and we need some money now.

The Star
Boot and Shoe Store,
One door North of Grayling House, Is the place to buy your boots and shoes.

De-e-ide-ly winterish.

The sand is hidden from view.
Get out your sleighs and jingling bells.

Palmer's planing mill shut down Monday.

Mrs. J. M. Jones returned from her visit Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Purchase, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Picture hangers (silver-wire cord, picture nail, and eyes) at C. E. Strunk's News Depot.

Rubbers of every description at the STAR Boot and Shoe Store.

Shoppennegons "laid out" two fine bikes Monday.

Lovely mottoes in black and white paper machine frames at C. E. Strunk's News Depot.

Locals this week are like scolding wives—"not many to be found."

There is considerable grumbling induced in because of the taking off of the night trains.

The democrats in this vicinity are holding a "mini-social" over the recent elections.

Call at the STAR Boot and Shoe Store and see those nobby slippers.

Mr. S. Casimer and Dr. O. Palmer started the fore part of the week for a few days' hunt.

It is predicted by the democratic press generally that Alabama and Kentucky will give a democratic majority in 1884.

Dunlap & Hovey, Fenton, Mich., say:
"We do not hesitate to recommend Brown's Iron Bitters."

Another dance at the hall last Saturday evening. Well attended and good time.

A large and varied assortment of handkerchiefs, fast colors, at 5 cents each, at C. E. Strunk's News Depot.

Don't say anything to Hi, about engaging to travel with the show. He might get mad, you know.

Why are the chickens and turkeys weeping such bitter tears? Thanks giving draweth nigh!

A fine assortment of Peacock Silk Handkerchiefs, only 20 cents each, at C. E. Strunk's News Depot.

A large and varied assortment of lumbermen's boots at the STAR Store.

Itessie Joslyn, a Hartford telephone-girl, has lost her voice through too many "Hello!" for the last year.

We hear that Lawyer Conning shot a big deer Tuesday, but did not learn whether it was accidental or otherwise.

Mrs. Chas. Saunders and Walker Mitchell are making arrangements for giving a grand ball at the opera house on Thanksgiving evening. More anon.

The finest line of boots and shoes in Northern Michigan at the STAR Store.

Mr. F. D. Robinson, our popular meat-market man, who has been "under the weather" for quite a while, is again able to be "on deck."

Lost.—On Wednesday evening presumably between the depot and the residence of Mrs. L. Holley, a hair braid. The finder will greatly oblige by leaving the same at this office.

For the best and cheapest boots at a shoes in the city, go to the STAR Boot and Shoe Store.

Since the recent publication of the general request for Sergeant Mason's parson, Judge Advocate Swain has received hundreds of petitions to the same effect.

There is a movement on foot to enforce the states' delinquent $3,500,- 000 in the aggregate of their share of the $20,000 direct tax of 1862, to pay up, or to have the money paid by the other states refunded.

The Holidays are coming, and if you wish to learn where you can find the neatest holiday presents for the least money, watch the columns of the AV-ALANCHE. Our merchants are wide-awake and enterprising, and they generally through the medium of advertising let the people know what they keep.

A SAD DEATH.—Is it not sad to see your friends and neighbors die with kidney complaint, or any disease of the urinary organs, when if they had taken Hill's English Extract of Buchu and Catechu, it would have cured them of their disease and restored them to health.

Stamped perforated card board, beautiful designs, at C. E. Strunk's News Depot.

Our readers will please place the time for the late appearance of the AVALANCHE to the sudden cold snap brought on with our fall-down.

The aspirations of "cock-eyed Ben" to the Presidency have been cruelly nipped in the bud by the bad, bad people of Massachusetts. Oh, how cruel!

A private letter from Mr. D. Shoup to Mr. A. Taylor announces the safe arrival of himself and family at Bella-Me., and that they are impressed favorably with the country.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday, Nov. 13th, 1888, by Justice of the Peace T. E.
Hastings, Mr. Geo. Gwathmey, of Center Plains, to Miss Esther E. Crego, of Beaver Creek.

Will some of our subscribers who are owing for the AVALANCHE bring us some wood? Winter is upon us, and we are shivering. Pay heed to the sad, sad wall of the poor printer.

"Yes, winter is a stern reality. It's come. We feel its rigorous embrace, yet don't hanker after it half as much as a square hug from a round-shouldered school-ma'am."—Otsego Herald.
For shame, Me! your "better half" ought to put a Dutch head on you.

The Detroit Art Loan closed last Saturday night. The total attendance was 134,000, of which 2,735 were pa-rises. The total receipts will aggregate about $40,000. After paying all expenses there will be a surplus, it is expected, of from $3,000 to $5,000, which will be applied on a permanent exhibition fund.

"They are getting so that they shoot at people through the street car windows in East Saginaw. The following, taken from the Express, illustrates the affair pretty well: Shortly before noon last Monday, as a street car on the Washington avenue line was passing Moyt street, a bullet struck the side of the car and passing through went out an opposite window, shivering the glass to pieces. Two ladies riding in the car had a narrow escape from instant death, and as may be inferred, were badly frightened. A gentleman, also a passenger in the car, said the shot was undoubtedly intended for him, that being the second time a bullet had been fired near him within two days. His name could not be learned, the motive which prompted the commission of the dastardly act, or the name of the villain whom he suspected. It is hoped he may be found, however, and the punishment so richly deserved meted out to him."

Saginaw Herald. The ladies referred to in the above article were Mrs. J. M.
Jones, of this place, and Mrs. Burke, mother of Mrs. Jones, of South Saginaw.

GOOD ADVICE.

The Burlington Hawkeye often gets off witty, pithy and truthful sayings, but it is safe to venture the assertion that it seldom utters a more sensible paragraph than its recent advice to young men, to follow:

"Get away from the crowd a little while every day, my boy. Stand one side and let the world run by while you get acquainted with yourself, and see what kind of a fellow you are. Ask yourself hard questions about yourself.
Ascertain from original sources
if you are really the master of boy people say you are; find out if you are always honest; if you always tell the truth, perfect truth in business deals; if your life is as good and upright at 11 o'clock at night as it is at noon; if you are as sound a temperance man on a fishing expedition as you are at a Sunday school picnic; if you are as good a boy when you go to Chicago as you are at home; if, in short, you are really the sort of young man your father hopes you are, your mother says you are, and your sweetheart believes you are. Get on intimate terms with yourself, my boy, and believe me, every time you come out from one of these interviews you will be a stronger, better, purer man."

We would advise every young man whose eye-hanxes to light on the above to heed the timely suggestion.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The following cases were disposed of at the term of court held last week:

Judge Tuttle, of East Tawas, presiding:

The People vs. Patrick Burk. Larson. Nolle pross.

The People vs. John McCarty. Violation of the liquor law. Discharged.

The People vs. Henry Bell. Violation of the liquor law. Discharged.

The People vs. Lewis Scheib. Resisting an officer. Nolle pross.

The People vs. Coonrod House. Resisting an officer. Discharged.

Amelia Vaughan vs. Sylvester Vaughan.
Attachment. Stayed for costs.

Hattie Delong vs. Hubbard Head.
Slander. Judgment for plaintiff for $300 and costs.

C. W. Wight vs. Joseph White. Appeal. Decision taken under advisement.

Wm. A. Masters vs. Adelbert Taylor.
Cerlari. Taken under advisement.

Eliza O. Johnson vs. Wm. Johnson.
Divorce. Decree granted.

Jas. S. Smalley vs. Leroy W. Wight, Frances J. Wight and Chas. Supe.
Foreclosure. Decree granted.

NOTICE.

All persons removing from or cutting any timber or wood on the s. q. of the n. w. q. and s. h. of n. q. sec. 7, a part of and adjoining the village, will be brought to justice.

J. O. HADLEY.

Of the recent removal of State Senator Gullifer to Sandusky the Harrisville Review has this to say: "F. G.
Gullifer and family left on the Atlantic, Thursday, for Sandusky, where they will hereafter reside, and in this connection more than a passing notice is deserved. Mr. Gullifer came to Michigan in 1867, since which time, with the exception of two years, spent on the upper peninsula, the histories of Iosco and Alcona counties have been identical with his own. He came to Au Sable in 1869, and last fall was elected to represent the 23d Senatorial district by a majority that astonished his most sincere friends. Mr. Gullifer goes to Sandusky as vice-president of the Plummer Lumber Co., where his proverbial good nature and genial qualities cannot fail of winning him many friends. He is followed to his new home by the universal good wishes of the people of this shore."

APPOINTMENT OF TERMS IN THE

23d JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, FOR 1884-5.

In the county of Iosco, on the first Tuesday of February, and second Tuesday of May and October.

In the county of Alcona, on the third Tuesday of February, and the last Tuesday of June and September.

In the county of Crawford, on the fourth Tuesday of February, third Tuesday of June, and fourth Tuesday of September.

In the county of Oscoda, on Thursday next after the fourth Tuesday of February, and first Friday after the second Tuesday of June.

J. B. TUTTLE,
Circuit Judge.

15w5

WASHINGTONIANSM.

The work of cancelling stamped checks will be completed this week.

A new daily paper with Bob Ingersoll as one of the contributors will come out, independent, in December.

The new architect finds his hands full. A dozen new buildings ordered by congress await his plans and specifications.

The terrible mental strain to which he has been subjected by too much marriage has made Major Nickerson now at Thorold, Canada, insane.

Gold for the working class. Send 10 cents for postage and we will mail you free a royal, valuable box of sample goods that will put you in the way of making more money in a few days than you ever thought. It is safe at any business. Capital not required. We will start you. You can work all the time or in spare time only.
The work is universally adapted to both sexes, young and old. You can easily earn from 50 cents to $5 every evening. That all who want work must test the business, we make this unparalleled offer: to all who are not well satisfied we will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing us. Full particulars, directions, etc., sent free. Fortune will be made by those who give their whole time to the work. Great success absolutely sure. Don't delay, start now. Address Stinson & Co., Portland, Maine.

WORLD'S

GOOD ADVICE.

The Burlington Hawkeye often gets
off witty, pithy and truthful sayings,
but it is safe to venture the assertion
that it seldom utters a more sensible
paragraph than its recent advice to
young men, to follow:

"Get away from the crowd a little while every day, my boy. Stand one
side and let the world run by while you
get acquainted with yourself, and see
what kind of a fellow you are. Ask yourself hard questions about yourself.
Ascertain from original sources
if you are really the master of boy
people say you are; find out if you are
always honest; if you always tell the
truth, perfect truth in business deals;
if your life is as good and upright at 11 o'clock at night as it is at noon; if you are as sound a temperance man on a fishing expedition as you are at a Sunday school picnic; if you are as
good a boy when you go to Chicago as
you are at home; if, in short, you are
really the sort of young man your father
hopes you are, your mother says you
are, and your sweetheart believes you
are. Get on intimate terms with your-
self, my boy, and believe me, every
time you come out from one of these
interviews you will be a stronger, better, purer man."

We would advise every young man
whose eye-hanxes to light on the above
to heed the timely suggestion.

GOOD ADVICE.

The Burlington Hawkeye often gets
off witty, pithy and truthful sayings,
but it is safe to venture the assertion
that it seldom utters a more sensible
paragraph than its recent advice to
young men, to follow:

"Get away from the crowd a little
while every day, my boy. Stand one
side and let the world run by while you
get acquainted with yourself, and see
what kind of a fellow you are. Ask yourself hard questions about yourself.
Ascertain from original sources
if you are really the master of boy
people say you are; find out if you are
always honest; if you always tell the
truth, perfect truth in business deals;
if your life is as good and upright at 11 o'clock at night as it is at noon; if you are as sound a temperance man on a fishing expedition as you are at a Sunday school picnic; if you are as
good a boy when you go to Chicago as
you are at home; if, in short, you are
really the sort of young man your father
hopes you are, your mother says you
are, and your sweetheart believes you
are. Get on intimate terms with your-
self, my boy, and believe me, every
time you come out from one of these
interviews you will be a stronger, better, purer man."

We would advise every young man
whose eye-hanxes to light on the above
to heed the timely suggestion.

GOOD ADVICE.

The Burlington Hawkeye often gets
off witty, pithy and truthful sayings,
but it is safe to venture the assertion
that it seldom utters a more sensible
paragraph than its recent advice to
young men, to follow:

"Get away from the crowd a little while every day, my boy. Stand one
side and let the world run by while you
get acquainted with yourself, and see
what kind of a fellow you are. Ask yourself hard questions about yourself.
Ascertain from original sources
if you are really the master of boy
people say you are; find out if you are
always honest; if you always tell the
truth, perfect truth in business deals;
if your life is as good and upright at 11 o'clock at night as it is at noon; if you are as sound a temperance man on a fishing expedition as you are at a Sunday school picnic; if you are as
good a boy when you go to Chicago as
you are at home; if, in short, you are
really the sort of young man your father
hopes you are, your mother says you
are, and your sweetheart believes you
are. Get on intimate terms with your-
self, my boy, and believe me, every
time you come out from one of these
interviews you will be a stronger, better, purer man."

We would advise every young man
whose eye-hanxes to light on the above to heed the timely suggestion.</p